The Cincinnati Enquirer has a sensa tional dispatch from Charleston, this state, the top line of the heading of which is the word "Shameful." It is an appropriate heading, for the dispatch is the most shameful falsehood that has appeared recently in this campaign. It concerns the Palmer and Buckner Democratic organization in West Virginia, and is a libel upon every honest Democrat who is standing by the traditional principles of true Democracy and against the heresics advocated by the Bryanites. If the sound money Demo-crats desire to see how they are being abused and misrepresented by the tools of the state Popocratic machine they need not go farther than yesterday's

The Charleston dispatch in question charges that the National Democracy of this state have spent "thousands of dollars of Mark Hanna's money" in the effort to bribe voters to sign their electoral petition, and even after all this extrava-gant expenditure they failed to secure making this startling statement, which is a lie on its face, the Enquirer applies more than one epithet to the gentlemen who comprise the National Democracy of West Virginia. The entire organization, it says, is composed of corporation attorneys, their claim of being true Democrats is sneered at and they are dubbed, "Boltocrats."

But the feature of the dispatch is one which shows plainly that it is inspired by the Watts ring managers at Charleston. It charges that Z. T. Vinson, one of the leaders of the sound money Democrats, approached General J. W. St. Clair at Huntington with the electoral petition, stated to him that it lacked 250 names of having the 1,000 signatures required, and offered to pay one-half of the campaign expenses of the Democratic state ticket if the state committee would secure enough signers for the Palmer and Buckner ticket.

General St. Clair is chronicled as declining this enticing offer and Chairman Edmiston and manager Chilton are quoted as saying that while they would like to have the "thousands of dollars" the Palmer men were willing to pay for 250 signers to a petition they were too virtuous to secure Watts' election in such a manner!

If there was ever a more absurd campaign story concocted than this we have never read it. As we have said, it bears a lie on its face. If the sound money Democratic cause is so weak that it can not secure a thousand names for its petition, why would its leaders want to pay "thousands of dollars" to secure its insertion on the ballot, and what would be gained for anybody to pay "thousands of dollars" for signatures to a petition when all that were needed could be gotten for nothing?

The Popocratic machine at Charleston will have to concoct a story that men with ordinary intelligence will believe if it expects to carry on an effective lying bureau. Meantime what do the sound money Democrats think of the manner in which they are being libeled by the Watta supporters and the Bry-

When a man registers in Kentucky he declares his politics. Counting for Bryan all who describe themselves as Democrats-giving Buckner or McKinley none of them-the state appears to be Republican. The registration supports the claim of the Republicans and sound money Democrats that McKinley will carry Kentucky, and that by a larger majority than it gave Governor Bradley

Labor in Free Silver Mexico.

Every American workingman who is sked to vote for Bryan and free silver hould read the full report of the committee of the Chicago Trades and Labor Assembly on the condition of the laboring classes in Mexico. The committee was a non-partisan one, appointed to make a tour of Mexico and personally investigate the conditions and make an impartial report.

In reading the report workingmen should bear in mind that the figures given of wages should be divided by two in nearly all instances, in order to find their equivalent in United States money, as every dollar of our country is equal in purchasing power to two dollars in Mexican money.

The sad picture which is drawn by the committee of the low condition of the common classes in our sister republic is one which should make a deep impression on the mind of every man who reads it. Labor, except in a few cases where skilled mechanics, mostly Americans, are employed, is paid less than one half what it is in this country and in most cases not one-fourth, while the cost of living is double, "We advise American workingmen," says the report, "not to go to Mexico unless they have enough money to bring them back home." This is a significant paragraph written by the committee and expesses a great deal.

Mexico is often spoken of as a prosperous country, but those who hold up that prosperity as an eyidence of what can be done by a country on a silver basis are careful not to give the conditions which exist among the common people, as discovered by this committee of workingmen. It is a prosperity in which the laboring classes do not share.

When the Bryan leaders say they are going to carry New York and Ohio, all the world must wonder at their marvelous forbearance. It would be just as easy to include Pennsylvania and Maine and Vermont and a few more and make a clean job of it.

Helping the Enemy.

The sound money Democrats of West Virginia earnestly desire the defeat of Bryan and Bryanism, and they want both hit their death blow. They resent the capture of their national organization by the Populists and are as far as Republicans are from wishing success to anything in the Bryan outfit.

At the same time many of the sound money Democrats of this state say they will support the Bryan state ticket and the Bryan county tickets. A little re-flection should convince these Democrats that they are not in a logical position. It is never logical to strengthen the enemy's position. To support the state ticket and the county tickets, which in turn are made up of men who are supporting the Bryan cause, is to give to the Bryan cause a strength which the sound money Democrats do not intend to give it.

The Bryan state machine is denoun-cing and hounding every Democrat who does not support Bryan. Why should any Democrat who opposes Bryan and Bryanism help the men in West Virginia who are helping Bryan? If Bryan and his party were to succeed in this election, carrying the state ticket with them, the sound money men would see the whole of the machinery in this state used to help on the measure to which the Bryan party is committed. Cer-tainly this is not what they want.

The men on the Bryan state and coun ty tickets have cast their lot with the Bryan party. They should be allowed to sink or swim with that party.

It is discovered by the Bryan people that Archbishop Treland doesn't amount to much anyhow? Well, why show se much annoyance, not to say real grief. over his powerful argument ngainst Bryan and Bryanism?

Too Good to Print.

Wheeling the letter of Hon. Thomas F. Bayard, of Delaware, our ambassador to Great Britain, expressing his abhorrence of Bryanism and urging Demo crats to support Palmer and Buckner. The letter contains a drive at the Republican party, but it was news and the Intelligencer printed it.

Readers who have no other source of news supply than the Register did not get this enteriaining bit of news. Why? Was the Register afraid of it? Did it think its cause could not stand the arraignment of this eminent Democrat? Wouldn't it have been better to print Mr. Bayard's letter for its news value and then denounce the author as a member of "The Woman's Relief Corps of the Republican party," as the Register speaks of Democrats here at home who exercise their right to oppose that which does not sult them?

The claims of Bryan success are grow ing fainter. After election day they won't be strong enough to raise so much as a whimper.

tome Droll Things.

The Bryanite effort in this state to hook up with all there is in the Populist party in West Virginia is a droll com mentary on an organization which calls itself the majority party.

There is yet a droller view of it. In national politics the Populists have swallowed so much of the Democratic party as did not step aside and refuse to be awallowed. In the state politics of West Virginia the Bryanites are making a frantic effort to do the swallowing. This is in the interest of their state

They need not bother themselves They cannot get together enough voter to save their state ticket. They are already fouted all along the line.

Now Hon, Thomas F. Bayard, of Del aware, is added to the long list of Democrats of high standing who declare that the Chicago platform is not Democratic, and refuses to support Bryan and Sewall. Who is to say what is Democratic President Cleveland and his whole Demperatic cabinet, backed by all that is eminent in the whole Democratic party? Or Tillman and Altgeld and Debs and Coxey and Bryan7

ARCHBISHOP IRELAND

And His Appeal to the Patriotism of the Country.

New York Mall and Express: From

New York Mall and Express: From day to day, as the campaign nears its close and public appreciation of the national crisis becomes more intense by reading and reflecting upon the issues at stake, it is gratifying to note the advanced position assumed by the pulpit treatment of the all-absorbing theme. This treatment is in direct line with our contention from the very opening of the battle, and with the development of public feeling, that the struggle is one primarily of morals, in which political policy sinks into subordinate place and patriotism comes to the front as it has not come since the first gun twined on Sunter echoed throughout the states and brought the nation face to face with that other great moral question.

There is widespread prejudice against church interference in matters of political controversy. The nature of this prejudice, temporarily at least, in the minds of all right-thinking and broad-minded men. The emergency of 1896 warrants direct treatment under cover of the sermon; and to this labor many distinguished clergymen, have addressed themselves—with wholesome results, we cannot doubt.

If, however, our approbation and applicates on the country of the sermon; and to this labor many distinguished clergymen have addressed themselves—with wholesome results, we cannot doubt.

If, however, our approbation and applicate these churchmen whose loyal citizenship steps for x moment from the privilege and protection of the cloth to perform a duty which calls them into the arean of political discussion on a common level with all men who love their country and would not see it dishonored!

Among the men who have thus rushed to arms, none has delivered himself of a more withering arraignment of the so-cialistic forces now in the field, than has Archbishop Ireland, of Minnessita, Of all churches, the Roman Catholic is most conservative in these matters, Yet the present campaign has added to the list of clerical orators one of the most distinguished prelates of that church. His exhaustive statement, publ day to day, as the campaign nears its close and public appreciation of the iam McKinley.

The archbishop's address is no hasty

The archbishop's address is no hasty or fill-considered document. It is not the utterance of a visionary or a man so engrosed in churchly affairs as to be unmindful of the practical problems of government or unfitted to discuss them. It is the expression of a deep student, deeply in love with his country, and a man whose understanding and motives are above challenge or reproach.

His exhaustive review of the financial issue, while masterly, is not more so

His exhaustive review of the financial issue, while masterly, is not more so than the reviews of many others. Indeed, he makes it secondary to the so-claistic decimations contained in the Chicago platform. In his treatment of these we could ask no more vigarous blows from any campaign orator to-day in the service of the cause. His introduction of his agreal makes clear the attribute of the garden and the service of the cause. tion of his appeal makes clear the attitude resulting from long contemplation, and may well be reproduced us a guide to others of the cloth:

"I speak entirely as a citizen, without warrant from any ecclesiastical position, Deep as my convictions are, I hold in all due respect to my fellow citizens who have convictions at variance with my own. I impeach neither their good faith own. I impeach neither their good faith nor their honor. I am dealing not with men, but with principles and movements. This justice which I render to those whose ideas I am ready to combat I am sure they will render to me."

Here is no evasion, but much modesty advancing hand in hand with a determination that the citizen shall not be sunk in the clergyman. It is the voice of that liberal element which, if not at all times pleasing to Rome, still stands for maintaining the republic against the insidious incoads of European influences and "ism." The archibishop's address should be spread broadcast by the national committee.

SOUND MONEY DEMOCRATS.

Encouraging Reports From the Campalga in the South.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13 .- The managers of the sound money Democratic campaign expressed gratification to-day at the outlook for burying Bryan deep. George Foster Peabody said that they would send as many speakers as they could spare into West Virginia. Word was received from Durham, N. C., that out of 10,000 Democrats, nearly 200 had declared for Palmer. Three hundred Democrats will vote for Palmer in Wilmington, Del., they have declared.

De Lancey Nicoll will speak three times a week in West Virginia, North Carolina and Virginia. Ex-Governors Flower and Walter and ex-Lleutenant Governor Sheehan are also scheduled for a number of addresses.

Chairman John De Witt Warner said that in the state the party had secured the nomination of thirty-three candidates for Congress out of thirty-four, and had a provisional enrollment in forty counties out of the sixty. Advices from Albany were that the county would give Palmer between 1,500 and 2,000 votes, and might go for McKinley by 4,000. paign expressed gratification to-day at

Father—"Wrong again, my son. It is not correct to gay that 'commies' are cheaper, when you can trade a 'glass shooter' for ten of them, than when we could only get five. You should say that 'glass' shooters' have appreciated in price. Do not forget that, I wish my boy to have right ideas, and to express them correctly."

Johnny—"I don't care. Pappa; Rob had twenty 'commies' of me yesterday for two 'glass shooters', and he was to buy them back to-day, and now he wants to give me only ten back and I call that dead cheating; and mother says so, too."

Populist National Committee Pulling the Wires for Fusion. CHICAGO, Oct. 13 .- A meetingof the Populist national committee was held at the Sherman house to-day to consider the question of fusion in Kansas and Colorado, over which considerable friction has arisen. It is probable that action will be taken looking toward the displacement of some of the Democratic electors in the states named and the substitution of Populist electors in their places. All of the members of the national executive committee were present with the exception of Secretary Edston, of the national committee, and Chairman Dorr, of California. Senator Butler, of North Carolina, when asked if Mr. Watson would come out in a letter opposing the fusion arrangement made in the west, stated that no such letter was expected.

"We are all pulling to defeat McKinley," said Mr. Butler, "and while there is some friction over the division of the electors, in several of the states, no action will be taken that will in the least jeopardize the chances of our ticket. This will be discussed to-day, and I am sure will be adjusted amicably. You can state authoritatively that Mr. Watson will remain on the ticket. No thought of his resignation is entertained by us." tion will be taken looking toward the
